

- Knowledge and experience are the foundation of our business. Since the inception of Mark Haug Construction in 1975 we have made a commitment to our clients. A commitment to provide quality workmanship and innovative management.
- Integrity, honesty and trust are the foundation of our client relationships. These three are critical to a successful project.
- Our management and construction teams are the backbone of our company and are committed to you, the client.